Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on June 14, 2005 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of Patent Number 6,773,325 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

The application has been amended as follows:

Please add to page 1, line 1 between the date of March 7, 2000 and the period --now abandoned--

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The cited prior art of Sharpe, Kikinis, Gabai and Gilboa do not disclose nor teach the features according to claims 41 and 43, receiving input from a user through the input mechanism independently of communication with the toy and controlling the representation of the toy when the game system communicates with the toy based on the received user input in combination with the rest of the claimed limitations. Claims 1-40 contain allowable subject matter in view of prior art for the reasons disclosed in the previous office action mailed December 14, 2004 and claims 34-40 are maintained in the previous office action of paper number 16, Mailed December 18, 2003. All of the claims noted above are rejected under obviousness-type double patenting.
